

YEAR END EVENT 2017

Our Speakers

Liesel Farbach is Managing Consultant at CEB, now Gartner for the Talent Assessment Business in Germany and Switzerland. In her role she enables HR teams to leverage talent data and make better people decisions by designing and implementing Talent Management projects that support the business strategy. Liesel has a background in organizational psychology and communications.

Alexander Ratzel is Commercial Director at CEB, now Gartner and oversees the Business Development and Account Management in the DACH market. In his role he focuses with his team on helping organizations to align their HR strategy to their business strategy and enabling HR to deliver reliable talent data to support effective strategic business decisions. Alexander holds a major in psychology, with a specialization on work and organizational psychology.